

Healthy Families Build Strong Bonds

Welcome to the Family Advocacy Program (FAP) at USAG Ansbach offered through the Army Community Service.

Our mission is to provide services to support readiness of Soldiers and their families to promote self-reliance, resiliency, and stability. We are dedicated to spousal and child abuse prevention, education, prompt reporting, investigation, intervention, and treatment. The Family Advocacy Program provides a variety of services to Soldiers and Families to enhance their relationship skills and improve their quality of life.

Reporting Abuse/Neglect

If you suspect or observe abuse or neglect, call the Reporting Point of Contact (RPOC), the USAG Ansbach Military Police, at 09802-83-110.

- Provides support to the abused individual
- Offers a full range of safety services to victims of domestic violence about their rights as a victim
- Assists in obtaining protection orders
- Provides referrals

Call 0162-271-0334 to report domestic abuse or to inquire about victim advocacy services.

New Parent Support Program (NPSP)

NPSP is a FREE voluntary program that offers home visitations to give parents and expected parents the opportunity to learn and ask questions about pregnancy, child development, discipline, parenting, nutrition, and more! All military families expecting a child or with children (0-3) are eligible to participate in all services offered.

NPSP Services Offered

- Home Visits
- Parenting Classes
- Baby Boot Camp
- Wiggles & Giggles Play Group

Emergency Placement Care

Emergency Placement Care (EPC) is a temporary, short-term program that provides 24 hour care in a certified EPC home for eligible children who cannot be cared for by their natural family or legal guardian. EPC does not lead to the option for adoption. The EPC Program is in need of families who are willing to become certified providers. Interested Families can obtain an application by contacting the ACS Family Advocacy Program.

Skills for Life Education

Family Advocacy provides life skills classes that are aimed at building on individual and family strengths, increasing protective factors that have been found to reduce risk, and promote the safety and well-being of service members, their partners, and family members.

Life Skills Topics

- Taming Your Temper
- Healthy Communication in Relationships
 - Stress Less
 - And more!

We can bring these workshops to your unit or your Soldier, Family Readiness Group (SFRG) meetings.
